

ASSAYER

About the Site:

- BGM's gold exploration operations are located near the town of Wells, British Columbia.
- Wells has a population of about 250 residents and has a long history of gold mining and exploration dating back to the 1800s.
- BGM Mine Site and the main office is in the town of Wells.
- QR Mill is approximately 75 km away from Quesnel following the Barkerville Highway and 500 Rd.

Primary Focus

Reporting to the Chief Assayer or their Designate, the Assayer will be responsible for the safe, efficient, reliable, and accurate handling and preparation of all samples submitted to the Assay Lab. The incumbent must possess good communication skills, be self-motivated, and well organized while continuously aligning daily functions to reflect Barkerville Gold Mines Ltd. values.

Main Responsibilities

- Demonstrate total commitment to health, safety, and environment;
- Be a courageous safety leader and promote BGM's safety culture;
- A good team player who fits well within a healthy team environment and works in a cooperative manner with cross shift;
- Ensure adherence to laboratory policies & procedures;
- Reporting accurate sample analysis results in a timely manner;
- Operate and maintain Analytical Instruments;
- Perform work in Sample Preparation, Fire Assay, and Wet Laboratory;
- Prepare daily, weekly, and monthly reports and submit to the supervisor;
- Responsible for using chemicals and analytical methods to perform assaying duties;
- Perform statistical analysis;
- Prepare daily shift reports on Standard forms, report equipment failures, etc.
- Ensure daily assaying quotas are kept on track, and if any delays then report to supervisor;
- Participate in incident investigations and help eliminate or reduce hazards in the lab;
- Keep daily log of shift events;
- Perform other duties as assigned.

More Information about the position

- This position is permanent
- This position has 14 days on and 14 days off rotation.
- Camp accommodations and meals are provided by the employer at site.
- Travel to and from site is the responsibility of the employer.

Skills and Abilities Required:

- Demonstrate total commitment to health, safety, and environment;
- A good team player who fits well within a healthy team environment and works in a cooperative manner with cross shift;
- Be a problem solver and part of the solution;
- Ensure adherence to laboratory policies & procedures;
- Must be able to work under pressure, and be able to take accountability for their work;
- Proven quality and accuracy with performed tasks and reporting;
- Communicate effectively with others;
- Proven attention to details;
- Ability to work with written and verbal instructions and understand;
- Physically fit and capable of lifting to 22 kg;
- Ability to perform calibration and routine maintenance of laboratory instruments and perform assays according to laboratory standard operating procedures;
- Prepare and standardize laboratory solutions, maintaining accurate records;
- Ability to take over running of the Lab when Chief Assayer is absent;

Requirements:

- A minimum of three (3) years of experience in an Assay Lab environment with a strong mineral processing background (preferably in gold);
- A strong scientific knowledge is required. Bachelor's Degree in Science (Chemistry) or similar will be highly regarded. College Diploma (chemistry, assaying) coupled with more years of relevant experience will be considered;
- Experience with Fire Assaying and bullion assaying is an asset;
- Capable of operating Analytical Instruments (preferably AAS and LECO);
- Valid Driver's License.
- Candidates must be eligible to work in Canada

Please submit your resume to jobs@osiskodev.com